Zien 2015

MINISTER OF GENDER EQUALITY, CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND FAMILY WELFARE

The importance of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child cannot be overstated. It is a landmark blueprint for the use of all Member States and other stakeholders.

Thus it can be used as a reference document and a basis by all countries when designing their programmes, projects and policies and by NGOs and other organisations working with children to ensure that child rights are promoted and safeguarded at all times.

And yet, after more than 25 years since it came into being, this all-encompassing international Convention – the most widely ratified international human rights treaty in history – remains largely unknown to the general public and even by the very people who work with children on a daily basis and strive to look after the best interests of the child.

Hence the reason for my Ministry to publish, jointly with Creole Speaking Union, a bilingual edition of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, i.e., in both English and Mauritian Creole, in a bid to disseminate the principles enshrined in the Convention much more widely across the country.

We hope you find it useful and that you use it to promote Children's Rights.

Hon (Mrs) Marie-Aurore Marie-Joyce Perraud
Minister
